

Crowd Controller & Security (Unarmed) Course

Under the Security Providers Act 1993, security firms and people who are employed in the security industry such as security officers, crowd controllers, bodyguards, private investigators, security advisers and security equipment installers must be licensed to work in Queensland.

In order to qualify for a crowd controller's and Security (Unarmed) licence from 1 July 2008, you must have completed the following units of competency listed below and been assessed as competent by a registered training provider.

BARS Training Australia (National Provider 32061) now offers this course with a flexible delivery strategy that is not only tailored to our client needs but are realistic, industry based and the most practical available.

Course Title - Crowd Controller / Security (unarmed) Course (Qld) – Entry Level

- CPPSEC2001A - Communicate effectively in the security industry
- CPPSEC2002A - Follow workplace safety procedures in the security industry
- CPPSEC2003A - Work effectively in the security industry
- CPPSEC2004A - Respond to security risk situation
- CPPSEC2005A - Work as part of a security team
- CPPSEC2006A - Provide security services to clients
- CPPSEC2011A - Control access to and from premises
- CPPSEC2012A - Monitor and control individual and crowd behaviour
- CPPSEC2014A - Operate basic security equipment
- CPPSEC2015A - Patrol premises
- CPPSEC3002A - Manage conflict through negotiation (R)
- CPPSEC3003A - Determine response to security risk situation
- CPPSEC3007A - Maintain security of environment
- CPPSEC3013A - Control persons using empty handed techniques (R)
- HLTFA301B - Apply First Aid (R)

The qualification will be issued based on the successful completion of the units of competency. Competencies indicated with an (R) requires retraining (not RPL) on a triennial basis (every three years) to retain a Queensland crowd controllers license.

Schedule of Fees

The scheduled fee will be paid in full on enrolment and prior to the commencement of the training program. All fees paid will be issued with an acknowledgement receipt/tax invoice via email as proof of receipt of monies paid for access to course material and on-line tutorial support.

From $499 per participant (including first aid)

On-line booking and payments can be made through our secure website

www.barstraining.com.au

Alternatively

call Garry on 0414 527 800 to discuss your individual or group booking needs

